Halloween Festivities Enjoyed by C. D. A. Court

Members of Court St. Catherine, No. 1375, Catholic Daughters of America, spent a pleasant evening Monday when they gathered in Nativity parish hall for their annual Halloween party. Pumpkins and black cats, as well as the traditional colors, were used in decorating. Many interesting games were played during the evening, with prizes going to Mmes. Florence Hebert and Edith Owen.

Dainty refreshments were served from a decorated table by Mrs. Muriel Gately assisted by Mmes. Leola Elder and Regina Cunningham.

Guests included Miss Wanda Moore, Mmes. Betty Clemmer, Julia Sullivan, Daisy Smith and Florence Hebert.

Next Monday evening, the officers of the Court will meet at the home of Mrs. Hazel Hutton, 703 Cota Avenue for a monthly board meeting.

Volunteer Rolls VFW Auxiliary

With members of the Lomita Post No. 1622, Veterans of Foreign Wars, engaged in the construction of their new building on Lomita boulevard, plans for a Halloween party by the Auxiliary have been dispensed with and hot coffee and doughnuts will be in order for the men at the building site on that night.

The sewing club met today at the home of Mrs. Marion Estes in an effort to complete final plans for the annual bazaar to be held the first week of December, Mrs. Betty West, president, announced.

JUST RIGHT FOR HALLOWEEN! Silver is the heart of your table setting, even in your most informal mood. Here the gracious Lady Hamilton design by Community is used effectively with a modern mat and floral patterned china to set a card-table luncheon. Bread and butter plates are omitted to keep the effect casual and uncluttered. The simple centerpiece of garden "mums in little pumpkin heads is just right for Halloween, or you may prefer an arrangement of bitersweet and autumn leaves.

Keep your menu easy to prepare and serve—good to eat! A clear soup with croutons is always a good beginning. Next a main dish prepared in advance and heated to serve. A casserole of tuna, mushrooms and asparagus spears is different and appetizing. With the casserole pass a basket of little hot buttered biscuits. For dessert a colorful fruit compote will satisfy and end the luncheon on a light note.

Perry School Sets Carnival for Friday

Perry School P.T.A. is presenting a Halloween Carnival for the entertainment of the students. It will open at the Perry School tomorrow Friday, Oct. 29, at 8:30 p.m.

A costume contest at 7:30 o'clock will follow the showing of a free movie outside. The bazaar will be in the auditorium, where hot dogs, soft drinks and other carnival fare will be dispensed. Completing the Halloween theme will be a witch fortune teller and a fun house with all the spoons on hand. Games of skill and a fish pond, situated on the grounds, will add to the fun.

FACULTY MEMBERS TO BE HONORED AT RECEPTION

Torrance High School gymnasium will be a festive setting for a reception for teachers in Torrance schools to be held Monday evening, Nov. 15. The affair is being arranged by members of The Torrance Education Advisory Committee and Torrance Council First District Parent-Teacher Association. All residents are cordially invited to attend and become acquainted with the teaching staffs of the schools.

An autumn motif is being planned by Mrs. A. C. Turner, decoration committee chairman. Other chairmen appointed include Mrs. Nadine Nickol, entertainment, and Mrs. Don L. Hyde, publicity.

More than 500 are expected to attend, including approximately 150 faculty members.

SUGGESTIONS FOR GAY HALLOWEEN LUNCHEON

For quick and easy Halloween entertaining make it a card table luncheon. Set up the tables with mats in gay shades of orange, yellow and red. Use napkins in a contrasting color. The table decoration or centerpiece should be kept small and compact.

Late flowers from your garden arranged in a pottery dish are always attractive. Or carry out the Halloween motif with little flower-filled pumpkin heads set around tall candles.

Bread and butter plates can be used to keep the small tables informal and uncluttered. The menu should be informal and uncluttered, too. A golden chicken broth with strips of carrot and green pepper is a good beginning and will carry out the Halloween color scheme. Casserole main dishes are excellent because they can be prepared ahead of time and reheated just before serving. A medium-sized casserole, big enough to serve four, can be filled for each table. This will cancel hurry and extra kitchen trips. Pass a basket of crisp crackers or little hot biscuits with the main course. Butter the biscuits for ease of service, but be sure to leave some plain for the dieters. A compote of fruit ends meal on a light note, or you may prefer a sherbet with cookies or little cakes. Coffee can be served while you clear away the tables and prepare for the afternoon's festivities.

Don't Pay Rent For The Wallacites

SMASH THIS Bad Housing Scheme

VOTE NO PROPOSITION No. 14

The Left-Wing — Wallace crowd drew this bill up, and duped worthwhile citizens into endorsing it. Paid employees and key leaders in the proponents' camp have long left wing records. The Communist Party and the Wallace Party have both endorsed the bill. So have 27 other organizations listed in the Tenney Red Book as Communist Front organizations.

This housing proposal is not self-liquidating; although its backers claim it is. The measure constantly refers to "subventions" (subsidies or grants) which are to be made to cover deficits. It says rents are to be levied by a political commission based upon "ability to pay." A lofty sentiment, but translated into actuality, it means a favored few get brand new homes and apartments for next to nothing, and the rest of us are to be taxed to pay somebody else's rent!
